

Voices Of Mother Earth

Ambros

1. Birdies Morning Song

This is a Song about a little Bird sitting in the sun and singing his morning song.

2. Sunrise

I always remember while staying in the Black Hills during sunrise. You can hear the dogs howling, the rooster, the horse and every other creature that awakens during this time of the day !

3. The River

Imagine, standing at the banks of a river, watching the water running by softly ... not too far away there are some rapids and the river is turning into whitewater and there's a waterfall ... and then the river is getting big and silent again until it flows into the sea.

The background of the entire page is a silhouette of a person standing and playing a flute. The person is positioned on the right side of the frame. The background behind them consists of dark, intricate tree branches against a warm, orange-to-yellow gradient, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall mood is serene and artistic.

4. Micanté

Micanté is the Lakota meaning for "my heart."

I composed this song for my sweetheart and it will be always your song !! - Thank you very much for being there for me and taking care of me when I need you - aho Micanté - I love you !

5. Two Voices

This is a song about two flutes talking to each other ... if you listen, you will understand what they are talking about !

6. Dance Of The Wildflowers

The dance of the wildflowers is danced in late summertime. - It is the time when the wind chases them and if you watch it you will realise it looks like they are dancing.

7. Brothers

This song is to honor all "Brothers" by blood or friendship ...

8. Old Man Stone

This is a song to honor the stone and when you talk to him you call him Oldman because he is way older than you and he's been here for ever ...

9. Silver Moon

In the time of the full moon you see everything in a silver shining light. - That's the time of the "Silver Moon."

The background of the entire page is a textured, artistic illustration. It features a dark silhouette of a person on the right side, standing and playing a flute. To the left, there are dark, intricate silhouettes of tree branches. The background color transitions from a deep orange at the top to a bright yellow at the bottom, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall style is reminiscent of a woodcut or a textured print.

10. Tatanka

This is a song to honor "Tatanka" the big Buffalo Bull. He has a lot of strength and power. - "Thank you Tatanka for being here and teaching us about life."

11. For The Children

This song came to me when I was performing and surrounded children all ages. At that time I played "For the children."

12. Neavose

This song is to honor "Neavose" the sacred mountain as the Cheyenne call him. - The Lakota call him "Mato Paha."

13. Blackbird

This is a song about the Blackbird sitting in a tree in my neighbours garden. It is sitting high above every other living creature and it seems like it's making fun of everyone there. I have watched this scene many times and that's the reason for this song.

14. Whispering Trees

This is a song about the time, in fall when the leaves of the trees are turning their colours - and if you go for a walk then you are able to hear them talking to each other ... and if you listen carefully .... you will hear the "whispering trees."

15. Mitakuye Oyasin

We are all related .... and this song is telling that everything is related somehow !
Aho Grandfather - we are all related !
